

Laurent Petrynka

ISF President

IOC Olympic Education Commission Member

With more than 20 years of experience in the education and sport system in France and at the international level, Laurent Petrynka was the National Director of the UNSS (Union Nationale du Sport Scolaire) until 2018 and was appointed as inter-ministerial coordinator of the SNU (Service National Universel) under the authority of the Ministry of Education in France. He is currently the inspector general of education in France (IGEN), President of the International School Sport Federation since 2014 and Member of the IOC Olympic Education Commission. On a personal sporting note, Laurent is a former footballer from the French 3rd division in the club of Viry Châtillon (Département Essonne) and is now a very active runner. The focus of his missions have always consisted of health and empowerment of youth through school sport.